CORRESPONDENCE COURSE OF INTERIOR DESIGN

TERMS OF ENROLMENT AND STUDY

1. The course materials will be issued only after realization of draft. The course fee is non - refundable on issuance of course material. Aspiring students may assess the study material at the SANSKRUTI office or on the Institute's website www.sanskriti2000.com, or www.sanskriti1000.com , before enrolment.
2. After studying each chapter in the Manuals, students have to answer questions relevant to each section and deliver or post their answer copies to SANSKRUTI. Answer copies of at least two chapters should be submitted at a time. SANSKRUTI faculty will evaluate these and post the corrected copies back. Incase the answers are incorrect, each student will be given a second opportunity to answer the questions correctly. Thereafter, for every subsequent attempt, students will be charged extra at the Institute's discretion.
3. SANSKRUTI Diploma will be awarded to students who study the course, submit all answer sheets and satisfactorily pass the evaluation. After completion of the course within the stipulated time period and with all answer sheets evaluated along with all the redo questions with a 'Fair' and above grade the student is awarded a Diploma. Students need to complete all the 'repeat' or 'redo' answers, before qualifying for the Diploma. The decision of the Institute will be final in this respect.
4. The Course duration is twelve months (Basic course) and fifteen months (Advanced course). Students taking longer than one year or fifteen months will be charged as per the extension rules of the Institute. SANSKRUTI will not be responsible for papers lost in mail.
5. Availability of work in the interior field depends on individual talent and initiative. SANSKRUTI cannot guarantee that successful students will get first class jobs immediately, though our diploma course could set you well on the path to such a placement.
6. SANSKRUTI course is for individual enrolment and study. On successful completion of the course a Diploma is awarded only to the student enrolled and not to couples or families.
7. All disputes concerning the SANSKRUTI course are subject to Mumbai jurisdiction.
